

Count Every Child Conference Programme
Monday 16 November
London

09.00 Registration

Welcome and overview of Plan's universal birth campaign (UBR) challenges and successes
Nigel Chapman, CEO Plan

Opening speech – UBR in the context of child rights
Actor Anil Kapoor, Plan India's UBR ambassador (invited)

Expert panel – chair Marie Staunton, Director Plan UK
Panellists from Pakistan, Indonesia, Paraguay and Burkina Faso present case studies for information and discussion

12.30 LUNCH

Keynote speech – UBR and links to migration, trafficking, citizenship and wider issues
Professor Jaqueline Bhabha, Harvard University

Keynote speech - Identity for Development
Dr Hamid Rashid, Coordinator, Legal Empowerment of the Poor, UNDP

Expert panel - chair Dr Susan Bissell, Head of Child Protection, UNICEF
ECPAT - Christine Beddoe, Director, ECPAT UK
Interpol – Michael Moran
International Council of Nursing – Sylvia Denton, ICN Board Member
InterAmerican Development Bank – Mia Harbitz
The panel will discuss linkages at global level and how birth registration affects their work, with time for questions

Closing plenary – chair Nigel Chapman, CEO Plan

Vote of thanks by Archbishop Emeritus Desmond Tutu, Plan's international UBR ambassador (tbc)

17.00 END