1. Background Information on Plan International

Plan International is an independent development and humanitarian organisation that advances children’s rights and equality for girls.

We believe in the power and potential of every child. But this is often suppressed by poverty, violence, exclusion and discrimination. And it’s girls who are most affected. Working together with children, young people, our supporters and partners, we strive for a just world, tackling the root causes of the challenges facing girls and all vulnerable children.

We support children’s rights from birth until they reach adulthood. And we enable children to prepare for – and respond to – crises and adversity. We drive changes in practice and policy at local, national and global levels using our reach, experience and knowledge.

We have been building powerful partnerships for children for over 75 years, and are now active in more than 70 countries.

About the commissioning office

Plan International commenced operations in Moldova in early March 2022 to support the Government of Moldova, UN agencies, and humanitarian organisations in responding to the arrival of refugees from Ukraine. Plan International brings a focus on promoting child’s rights, gender equality, and accountability to affected populations within our protection and education humanitarian response programming. We have become a vocal advocate for child rights, specifically adolescent girls, on issues including trafficking and safeguarding in refugee accommodation centres (RACs) as well as supporting specific protection needs of minority groups, including those from LGBTQIA+ and Roma communities.

2. Background/Context

Millions of people have been displaced as a result of active hostilities and bombardment inside Ukraine since 24th February 2022. As of 1 April, approximately 7.1 million people have been forcibly displaced within Ukraine – around 16 per cent of the country’s population. More than 6.5 million (6,595,675) refugees from Ukraine – Ukrainian and Third Country Nationals – have fled into neighbouring countries (Poland, Romania, Hungary, Moldova, Belarus, Slovakia) while others have moved elsewhere.

The Republic of Moldova is one of the countries most affected by the refugee situation, and its border, migration and asylum management capacities are under significant strain. The World Bank classified it as a lower-middle-income country—despite reasonable economic performance over the past two decades—and the COVID-19 pandemic, as well as a severe drought in 2020, put further pressure on an already struggling system. With economic ties with Ukraine, the Russian Federation and neighbouring European Union (EU) countries, the war in Ukraine and refugee outflows are posing immense economic and social challenges for the Government, which is estimated to be spending EUR 900,000 per day (roughly USD 1 million) on support for refugees.

It is estimated that in the period 24 February – 15 April, 421,130 refugees have fled to Moldova and 101,331 of them have made the decision to stay. About an additional 8,000 refugees who have decided to stay are in the Transnistria region, located between the Nistru River and the Moldovan–Ukrainian border, a region in a protracted conflict (UN OHCHR).

3 Ukraine Situation: Regional Response Plan, Mar – Dec 2022
4 UN Human Rights in Moldova: Providing vital support to Ukrainian refugees
The majority of refugee population consists of women and children, including 47% children, due to the restrictions on men aged 18-60 leaving the country. Children and their families require access to basic food, hygiene and medical care, as well as systematic protection services including to address gender-based violence, violence against children and to access psychosocial care. Key child protection risks include the separation of children from their parents and families is a key concern, with those separated from all family members at greatest risk as well as those being evacuated from child care institutions in Moldova – it is estimated that at least 2% of children are separated or unaccompanied. Most women are entering and travelling without male family members, which creates significant protection risks and limits the ability of mothers to provide quality care for children. Children and female caregivers have also experienced or witnessed violence and the stress and uncertainty of displacement, resulting in high levels of psychosocial distress.

3. Objectives

1. Conduct consultations with 50 children (5 – 9 years, at least 50% female) and 50 adolescents (10 – 19 years, at least 50% female) affected by the Ukraine crisis, both from refugee accommodation centres (RACs) and host communities, to understand and document their needs, aspirations and preferred feedback and participation approaches for a more age and gender appropriate humanitarian response in accordance with CHS Commitment 1\(^6\), Commitment 3\(^7\), Commitment 4.6\(^8\) and Commitment 5.1\(^9\).

2. Conduct consultations with 50 adolescents (10 – 19, at least 50% female) and 50 young people (19 – 24, at least 50% female) from host communities to understand their needs, thoughts about social cohesion, their ideas on nature of support and gaps to children affected by the crisis in the host country.

3. Where relevant and possible, coordinate inputs from Protection partners in Moldova with regards to questions, methodology, and geographic coverage of the consultations.

4. Identify gaps and opportunities for humanitarian actors to integrate the voices and needs of girls and boys of all ages and diversities within existing sector responses.

Purpose of Consultancy

To lead and coordinate the children’s' consultation and participation in Moldova, in partnership with the regional and national task forces in the following ways:

1. Lead engagement and coordination with Plan International Moldova and its partners to:
   a. Develop and contextualize the methodology to support the children’s consultations and participation, with reference to previous consultations;
   b. Engage with Plan International on the children’s ethics review and risk assessment and management
   c. Coordinate and plan geographical locations/spread for FGDs and Child Participation activities
   d. Develop and deliver a training for facilitators, which will include safeguarding, child protection, confidentiality and data protection responsibilities, amongst other training content.
   e. Ensure agreement and sign off on common child safeguarding policy and code of conduct;

2. Liaise and coordinate with in-country local partners and partnering agencies to:
   a. Identify the appropriate platform for Key Informant Interviews, FGDs/Children’s workshops and/or online surveys,
   b. Arrange logistics with local partners where relevant
   c. Engage with the relevant government ministries for approvals and safe access to children, adolescent and young people within the host and refugee communities, as well as Third Country Nationals
   d. Undertake data collection and data analysis based on the approved analysis framework
   e. Produce the final version of the report and validation/feedback sessions with participants in the consultations
   f. Video compilation of child consultations and messages from children, adolescents and young people to their peers, the public and ‘decision makers’.
   g. Any other relevant duties as identified/assigned

3. Field Testing

\(^5\) The Child Protection Sub-Working Group: For coordination of child protection issues for the refugee response in Moldova - TOR
\(^6\) CHS Commitment 1: Communities and people affected by crisis receive assistance appropriate to their needs.
\(^7\) Communities and people affected by crisis are not negatively affected and more prepared, resilient and less at-risk as a result of humanitarian action.
\(^8\) Policies are in place for engaging communities and people affected by crisis, reflecting the priorities and risks they identify in all stages of the work.
\(^9\) Consult with communities and people affected by crisis on the design, implementation and monitoring of complaints-handling processes.
a. Define and agree field testing criteria and data collection requirements with Plan International
b. Pre-test the tools with children, adolescents and young people

Users

The results of the consultations are to be utilized by Plan International and its NGO partners in Moldova. It is also expected that the results will be shared to the wider humanitarian community especially the Government of Moldova, Accountability to Affected Populations (AAP) Taskforce, Prevention of Sexual Exploitation and Abuse (PSEA) Network, and the Child Protection in Emergency (CPIE) Sub-working group.

Note: At this stage, the timeline is indicative and the consultant may propose a different one during the inception phase. As part of the process, this timeline should be re-evaluated in consultation between Plan International and the consultant.

Review Framework and Methodology

Gender is a central element of all Plan International emergency response programmes. It is critical to note whether this response is contributing to Plan International’s new Global Strategy, and also reflects the Feminist Leadership principles.

The review should consider the questions from the above objectives. In addition the review should question to what extent the response approach is gender aware or gender transformative. This will be done by considering the following guiding questions, and also the Feminist Leadership Principle of Diversity:

- Are the different needs of girls, boys, women and men identified? In particular, is the girl child at the core of humanitarian programme planning?
- Does the humanitarian response in Moldova address these identified needs?
• Is the humanitarian response carried out in ways which promote gender equality in the communities where Plan International and other partners work?

5. Expected qualifications of Consultant

The consultant can be an individual, a team, or an organisation. At the minimum, the consultant should:

• Have the capacity to communicate fluently in English, Romanian, and Russian.
• Have educational background relevant to the consultancy, including proficiency in qualitative and quantitative methods of data collection and data analysis.
• Have the capacity to carry out the actual data collection with minimal support from Plan International and its partners; and
• Have experience carrying out similar work with children and local communities. This includes operational knowledge on Safeguarding of Children and Youth, and Prevention of Sexual Exploitation and Abuse (PSEA).

6. Contact
